

Global Series: Innovation and Trade

United States Chamber of Commerce
1615 H Street NW, Washington D.C. 20062

TRADE AGREEMENTS, THE TPP, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY, AND THE NEW WORLD OF INTERNATIONAL TRADE

Having special impact on intellectual property rights, the Trans Pacific Partnership (TPP) comes at an inflection point in the development of international trade. It follows numerous bilateral agreements, develops the deep harmonization of regulatory rules and dispute resolution mechanisms among its signatories. Its development also precedes completion of negotiating the Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership (TTIP). At the off the record May 13 session, senior stakeholders will explore these complexities. The conference is part of the ongoing Global Series of the Federal Circuit Bar Association, continuing its exploration of those issues in previous conferences in Asia, Europe, and here in Washington.

Join participating countries, including the following: Australia, Brazil, Cambodia, Canada, Chile, People's Republic of China, Colombia, Finland, Germany, Israel, Japan, Malaysia, Malta, Peru, Philippines, Singapore, South Africa, Spain, Switzerland, Vietnam.
